

Factsheet - Ilford Park Polish Home

This purpose-built home near Newton Abbot, Devon was formally opened after a major re-build on the 16th December 1992. It provides residential and nursing care to people who qualify for admission under the 1947 Polish Resettlement Act.

Ilford Park Polish Home (IPPH) is managed and administered by SPVA. Staff aim to offer high quality residential and nursing care by seeking advice and guidance from other professional bodies and organisations. The professionally trained nursing staff, together with the home's experienced management team, provide a relaxed, caring, stimulating and therapeutic environment with an emphasis on Polish culture.

Facilities

IPPH offers excellent on-site facilities including accommodation that is fully furnished to a high standard, kitchen areas available for the preparation of snacks and hot drinks, landscaped gardens, fully equipped hairdressing salon, Polish satellite television and numerous recreational activities.
